(d) Election of a new Director

On August 10, 2011, the Board of Directors of Carriage Services, Inc. (the “Company”) elected Donald Patteson, Jr. to serve as a Class III member to the Board of Directors until the 2014 annual meeting of shareholders. Mr. Patteson was appointed to serve on the Audit Committee, Compensation Committee and the Corporate Governance Committee.

Mr. Patteson is the founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Sovereign Business Forms, Inc., a consolidator in the wholesale manufacturing of custom business forms and related products segment of the printing industry. Prior to founding Sovereign in August 1996, he served as Managing Director of Sovereign Capital Partners, an investment firm specializing in leveraged buyouts. Mr. Patteson also previously served as President and Chief Executive Officer of WBC Holdings, Inc., President and Chief Executive Officer of Temple Marine Drilling, Inc./R.C. Chapman Drilling Co., Inc., and President, Chief Executive Officer and Director of Temple Drilling. Mr. Patteson also worked with Atwood Oceanics, Houston Offshore International, Western Oceanic and Arthur Andersen’s management consulting practice earlier in his career. Additionally, Mr. Patteson has served as a director of Rosetta Resources, Inc. since July 2005 and he currently is a member of its audit committee and is chairman of its nominating and corporate governance committee.

Concurrently with the election, the Board of Directors granted Mr. Patteson $100,000 of the Company’s common stock under our Director Compensation Policy, which equaled 19,193 shares based on the closing price on August 10, 2011. One-half of these shares vest immediately while the remainder vests equally on August 10, 2012 and August 10, 2013.
